THE WASHINGTON HERALD

Published Every Morning in the Year by .
THE WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY.

Publication Office

784 FIFTEENTH STREET NORTHWEST

Washington, D. C., as second-class matter SCOTT C. BONE, Edit or

Ernest H. Merrick, William P. Spurgeon, . Clarence C. Archibald, . . . Advertising Manager be worked out. I. Harry Cunningham. Charles C. Thompson. Mechanical Superintendent

Telephone Main 3300. (Private Branch Exchange.)

Subscription Rates by Mail. Daily and Sunday. ....25 cents per me with the manuscript for that purpose. be addressed to THE WASHINGTON HERALD.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1906.

Will a Foreigner Dig the Canal?

of their own, so that they that the governme perfect seclusion within the precincts of right way. their separate colleges.

This innovation has been brought about by complaints from men students, who The Herald, a complete modern news- off when a bank fails over there, in student life there.

A Suggestion to the Weather Man.

of the chief of the Weather Bureau to price possible and profitable, extend the scope of the forecast service. To many, the size of modern newspapers invade this new field.

to say that no change was in prospect. white paper is not likely to fall off. To know that a certain weather condition is likely to continue is as important as to know that it is about to come to an end. The daily summaries of weather conditions issued by the bureau frequently centain this information, or information from which the future course of the acid, we suggest the stage as a fine field titled to. Opinion is pretty evenly divided And a great man of Leonard Wood. weather may be inferred, but these sum- of endeavor for boric acid. maries are couched in technical language, acomprehensible to most of us, and, anyvay, they are not widely read. Ninetenths of the people never see anything but the brief local forecast printed on the really it did make. first page of their favorite newspaper, or posted in post-office or store. Local Mr. Cleveland says "it seems very easy weather conditions three or four days for some men to swallow their own hence may be dependent on a storm now brewing in the far West, or on a tropical disturbance in the West Indies, but of these and their bearing on the local Several seismographs registered telling in popular language what the kindly consideration of this earthquake weather prospects are for a few days to the emulation of all other earthquakes head, whether there is a hot or a cold now at large. wave coming, whether the cold or the sonably to be inferred from the weather meter editorial. reports, as would prove of service to the application nade for entry at the Post-office at ordinary citizen, whose meteorological atline; we should think it might safely at- cold storage eggs. , Treasurer and Business Manager tempt something more. And Chief Moore Managing Editor is the man who will work it out, if it can

The Increased Cost of Food.

And now comes Germany with a com plaint that during the past year the price the District of Columbia and at Alexandria, Va., at 25 cents per month, daily and Sunday, or at 25 cents per month without the Sunday issue.

of food has enormously increased. Beef a St. Louis girl refuse of marry him. Love may laugh at locksmiths, but oats, barley, peas, beans, and other isn't always guaranteed to laugh at oats, barley, peas, beans, and other isn't always guaranteed to laugh at cereals and vegetables are all more costly. The laboring classes are having great during the past few years. The wail ernment. No attention will be paid to anonymous contribu-tions, and no communications to the editor will be printed except over the name of the writer.

during the past few years. The wall of the housekeeper is heard throughout the land. Men with small salaries can the land. Men with small salaries can the land of the writer.

Manuscripts offered for publication will be remarked if unavailable, but stamps should be sent the proverbial rainy day. We have the proverbial rainy day. We have unications intended for this paper, blamed the trusts and monopolies, even while we have endured, and we have hoped that the day would come when the statement that a Long Island poet beef would not be a luxury and cab-bage would again return to the poor belonged to. man's table. Never has it occurred to us, however, that Germany was under-Under the plan of the Isthmian Canal going our dismal experience. The fact of the Post of of the Panama Canal by contract, it is shown not to be merely local, but world- get pinched. among the possibilities that some foreign wide, affords occasion for serious among the possibilities that some foreign wide, affords occasion for serious concern may capture the big job, for the thought. The magnitude of the calamity— ery of some ancient cells. Most any sell photograph at once. bidding is not limited to American con- for it is a calamity when the struggle is apt to be ancient by the time Philatractors, and we are told that the com- for existence becomes universally more delphia discovers it. mission expects bids from English, severe-appalls us. What is the end to co-education at the University of Chi- must be reckoned to have gone into the will be virtually in a distinct university, though enjoying a curriculum identical with that of the male students. Youth and maiden will not meet in student life, in mitigation of anxiety, even though it tions of the young man's name had been and students of both sexes will enjoy may not rub our amiable arrogance the misplaced.

A Newspaper for One Cent.

assert that there is lack of interest in paper, sells for one cent. Not so many classes attended by many women. Doubt- years ago a one-cent paper of the charless it has been hastened by what has acter of The Herald would have been been called the feminization of instruction thought an impossibility, both from the tion under the co-educational system. financial and news standpoints. The cost That the presence of women in univer- of producing a newspaper, proportionatesity classrooms tends to influence the ly to its size, was then much greater than character of the lectures, and possibly now; the amount of news which the aver- that magnificent organ promised it some the quality of the scholarship, is the con-age paper thought it necessary to print time ago by Mr. Carnegie. It is up to the clusion of some observers of the co-ed-was much less, and the great development students to sing Uncle Andy's praises Seen our liberal offer?" ucational system in practice. Whatever of mercantile advertising was unforeseen. now and forevermore the precise extent and nature of this in- Originally the one-cent paper was a small fluence, it has proved distasteful to the male students and faculty of the Chicago form and finding in four to six or eight.

Mr. Thomas W. Dawson says out, Lawous, eh? Hearst will win in New York. Mr. Lawous, eh? Son seems to be just as careless as ever institution and will no longer be a factor pages ample room for both news and ad- about giving out tips, vertisements. With the advent of the With the segregation of the sexes is typesetting machine, however, all this likely to come a differentiation in courses was changed. This wonderful invention making another farewell tour. of study and the subject-matter of lec- greatly reduced the cost of producing a of study and the subject-matter of lectures. And why not? Femininity and masculinity are correlative, not equivalent. The eternal feminine asserts itself under all conditions and in all circum-masculinity are constantly growing demands upon their under all conditions and in all circum-masculinity are constantly growing demands upon their seems to have been looking upon the valenties as scheme afoot against the Standard Oil Company is now on trial for violating the Valentine anti-trust law. The Standard Oil Company about?"

"I hear there's a scheme afoot against your bank," said the detective. "Have trust law. The Standard Oil Company about?"

"None whatever," replied the cashier under all conditions and in all circumspace of news and advertisements. Many stances, and why not in the education one-cent papers which began with issues variety. of feur pages each now appear with twelve to sixteen pages daily. modern printing and typesetting machinery make The Herald is pleased to note the plans the issue of prints of this size for a small

There has been a great increase in the seems appalling. A recent issue of a Chi- fonse and Gaston during the progress of usefulness of this bureau during recent cago paper contained 94 pages. This is an the New York campaign. years, as well as a large increase in the extreme example, but it is typical of the use made of its forecasts and warnings, American idea of doing something big. due to a better understanding of their The size of newspapers, however, is not value to those whose occupations and in- entirely due to the ambition of editors terests are affected by variations in the and publishers to do great things. It is weather. To obtain from ships at sea due in very large measure to the immense weather. To obtain from ships at sea due in very large measure to the immense uncrowned king of Norway, Now there's records of the weather and to supply forcuse which is made of advertising noweasts to them in return will be a remark. adays, on the one hand, and to the vast able achievement, but the rapid progress increase in the variety and character of in the development of wireless telegraphy the news which goes to the making up of makes it possible. Mr. Moore displays a modern newspaper, on the other. The commendable enterprise in his purpose to daily paper is a record of human activities in many fields. These activities tend The Weather Bureau has attained a to increase, and their growth adds to the and fifteenth amendments must be abolhigh degree of efficiency in its domestic quota of news which the paper must print, ished. That is a very unselfish view for Executive Compulsion, hail! forecasts, and the daily weather predictif it is to faithfully record the world's tion for the next day or two is highly history day by day. Not the least interuseful, but it would seem that the bureau esting portions of the paper are those demight easily add to the usefulness of this voted to advertising, which is the news prediction by attempting to forecast the of the commercial, financial, and mercanweather for a little longer time ahead tile community. These announcements quinine plantations. This will be a bitter lan one or two days. It would be possi- tend to increase in number and in size, pill for the big drug combine, ble, we should think, particularly in the so that as long as the American people case of hot or cold spells, to tell whether continue to be so prosperous in business they would be of long or short duration, and so active in doing things that make or when they would probably end, or even news the present newspaper demand for their overdues.

> Mr. J. Edward Addicks has adopted a five-pointed star as his political em-blem. Delaware seems to have acquired a habit of making Mr. Addicks see stars. Since hams may be cured with borle

Since the Premier Diamond Mining the lunatic asylum, Company, of Johannesburg, confesses to a dividend of 400 per cent last year, we weather the average man hears nothing.

Why, then, cannot the bureau add to one seems able to locate its whereits present local forecasts a few lines abouts. We cordially commend the

The Montreal Star has a seven-line heat is likely to last for a long or a short period, and such other information, reapresume that might be designated a star lass question." We

Mr. Upton Sinclair is going on the cainments are not extensive. The bureau stage. This will afford a rare chance for has already done something along this the packers to work off some of their

> A Manila man is accused of stealing a tombstone "in the dead of the night. At least the man displayed a fire appreciation of the proper hour at which to steal a tombstone

Because some of his friends played ridiculous practical joke on her intended

Over in Cuba the outs are demanding difficulty in making both ends meet.

Every one knows that in the United is not altogether an unpromising symp-..$1.00 per year States the cost of living has increased tom of Cuba's capacity for self gov-

After a courtship lasting some fifteen

The New York Herald is authority for Count Ouchakoff is creating consider

The Richmond Journal advises visitors

King Edward recently presented the "I see Jinks gets in the public eye a

It has been a hundred years since bank failed in China. They have a eare-less habit of chopping the banker's head instance a little learning is indeed a dan-

There is a great deal said about the "Brunswick succession" throughout the German empire just now. In fact, the Russia. whole thing seems to be a regular Bruns-

The University of Virginia has received Mr. Thomas W. Lawson says that Mr.

The Platt retirement rumor is again

"This man Bryan is not the whole Democratic party," says John L. Sullivan, That opinion seems likely to become unanimous in the Sullivan family.

We note the stern suppression of Al-Of course, Uncle Sam never imagined that a liberty diet would give Cuba such a flerce spell of indigestion. Bjørnstjerne Bjørnsen is said to be the

Mr. J. J. Hill says: "There is something better than a great pile of money." Possibly Mr. Hill has reference to two Senator Tillman says the fourteenth the Senator to take, for it would de prive him of his most profitable topic God grant I know not envy nor for his lecture tours. Consul General Michael, of Calcutta s advocating government ownership of Yet now at last I seem to se

Since Mr. Addicks and Mr. Allee have Will study me and say: fallen out, perhaps some of the other kind of folks over in Delaware will get of the other So difficult to understand!

It may yet be necessary to shake the dice in order to determine whether or not 'Al" Adams committed suicide

State's Attorney John J. Healey recer n Chicago as to whether this entitles im to a place in the Hall of Fame or The world is old and bald and bad-

One of the candidates for Congress in New York has adopted the cow as his And Presidents have much to do emblem. He evidently means to be just To keep the March of Mind a-walking. little bossy

Confectionery.

He was given a kiss By the bakery maid. Ah! the coy, little miss! He was given a kiss Though he'd asked her for this He was fooled, I'm afraid. -Cataolic Standard and Times.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER. GOSSIP ABOUT

INQUIRENDO DE LUNATICO. (A British scientist asserts that within a few years the whole world will be crazy.)

Now, Budkins is a thoughtful man, And half his mental labor Is to observe and wisely scan
The make-up of his neighbor.
'Tis odd, indeed, how closely he Cau judge one's brain equipment—
In fact, he quite agrees with me
On what Smith's latest slip meant.

Smith is a man who has a fad Of making stamp collections,
And Budkins says that Smith is madnis brain is made in sections.
One section is the faddist side
That holds Smith in its fetters;
The other is a crafty guide
And bids him stamp his letters.

And thus for every stamp he sticks
He pays ten times its value.
Is he the prince of lunatics?
Would you decide, or shall you?
And, furthermore, 'tis Budkins' view
That Brown and Black and Mooney
And Lone and Lohner, Perkins too. And Jones and Johnson, Perkins, too, Are just the least bit looney.

He cites the way that Higgins walks.
The style of Griggson's collars.
The stammer with which Roberts talks,
McGlue's wild chase for dollars.
The slavish way that Murphy works,
The point that French is lazz,
The point that French is lazz, The gleam that in Pott's optics larks,
As proof that each is craw. Why, Budkins even said that I, From some small disagreement With his queer views, must think awry-

Was dotty-that's what he meant! Now, listen, Budkins may be sane,

OLD MAN GIDDLES OBSERVES.

A young man with his first dress suit is is not known. just like a young woman with her first decollete dress—each wants to sit for a Maj. Burke, Impressario.

about his head. He sprained it trying to decide whether it is the smallness of the hose or the closeness of the wires that of England and the Continent with the

'Yes, he's a human cinder.'

gerous thing.' Gobbled. "Gimme the leavings?" humbly inquired ing to be no Corea. Quite So.

"Free wedding with 8,000,000 coupons.

Expense practically unlimited. Gener-"I should think the man who that many of your cigarettes would have more use for a free funeral."

They Always Are.

AN UNREFORMABLE REFORMER.

BY AMBROSE BIERCE. know not how they come abou These alterations in our spelling But sometimes am disposed to doub The efficacy of compelling (As still is done to one in school By threatening to whack or twist him) Observance of an iron rule Despite one's better private system. For when the sinner's freed from fear He spells, as formerly, by ear.

That's what I have observed, but much By that, I fear, is not decided Against the iron hand (whose touch May none experience as I did), For under this White House regime Condemning every silent letter, This is the motto, it would seen Who spells by ear spells all the bet-

If that is what these pranks entail,

When chatting over cup and saucer, Betray my secret hunger for The high renown of Geoffrey Chaucer. My way to equal approbation When I'm as hard to read as he, Phonetes of that far generation "How grand!

The President, the President!-How enterprising in revision of Nature's laws!-how diligent in cutting up a beef decision!-How sedulous the stars to woo And keep the seasons rightly going! Ah, seldom we remember who Stark, staring mad as any hatter (I know why hatters all are mad, But that's another, graver matter), O Father Adam, how you must Rejoice that both your ears are dust!

Expensive, but Uscless.

From the Philadelphia North American. From the Philadelphia North American.

Speaking of long felt wants, the dean Gov. Pennypacker's board paid $2,000,000 of Carlisle (England) has come out in a for files for the new capitol, but they defense of the rith. Once in a while Mr. evidently weren't delivered in time to be Rockefeller finds. I really readable article of use in filing down the other expenses. in print.

NOTABLE PEOPLE. From the Indianapolis News.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Grant.

little known that the widows of Jef- appearance at the National Capital Mon- just come from London to represent the ferson Davis and U. S. Grant met for the first time, and were formally introduced just before the outbreak of the Spanish-American War. The meeting occurred quite by chance in the Planter Hotel at St. Louis, and William Jennings Bryan witnessed it. The famous widows arrived at the hotel the same day. Mrs. Davis was en route to Colorado to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, who has been at the bedside of her dying the same and to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, who has been at the bedside of her dying the former Post. A more detailed among newspaper men as one of the strongest diminster Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the Colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the Colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the Colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the Colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington, He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the colombian legation. Senor Cortes, who is a very refined and highly educated gentlement of the washington. He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington. He is accompanied by Senor P. Guzman, who will be first secretary of the colombian government as its accredited Minister Plenipotentiary at Washington. ferson Davis and U. S. Grant met for day. Mr. Bone, who is regarded among Colombian government as its accredited who has been at the bedside of her dying mother for the past few days, and Mrs. tion shows that whatever change has been made is toward greater readableness and banker and financier in his adopted home. mother for the past few days, and Mrs. Grant was likewise passing through St. Louis to visit relatives. Each was in ignorance of the others presence in the hotel, although a moment before they were brought together each was the center of a group of friends in adjoining parlors connected by sliding doors that were open. It happened that a newspaper man who had gone to the hotel to interview Mrs. Davis was the medium of the introduction. As soon as Mrs. Grant was informed of the pressure of the distribution of the pressure of the distribution of the pressure of touch, with no so trifice of dignity. The editorial page, which is more dignitives of touch, with no so trifice of dignity. The editorial page, which is more dignitives of the editorial page, which is more directly under Mr. Bone's eye, is of the old-time Post quality and arrangement. There are some serious editorials, compactly written, others in lighter vein, and a string of crackling paragraphs. In fact, there is nothing faltering or doubting the page of the other with no so trifice of dignity. The editorial page, which is more directly under Mr. Bone's eye, is of the old-time Post quality and arrangement. There are some serious editorials, compactly written, others in lighter vein, and a string of crackling paragraphs. In fact, there is nothing faltering or doubting the page. The distribution of the Colombian legation in 1867. That is almost forty years ago, and, though I have been back several time progress Washington is making toward its goal as the finest capital in the world. My private affairs will sarcely admit of the pressure of the other with the colombian legation in 1867. That is almost forty years ago, and, though I have been back several time progress Washington is making toward its goal as the finest capital in the world. My private affairs will sarcely admit of the pressure of the other with the colombian legation in 1867. The capture of the progress washington is making toward its goal as the finest capital capture of the progress washin Mrs. Grant was informed of the pres- a long time, and meant to keep alive. ence of Mrs. Davis in the adjoining room she expressed a desire to meet her, and From the Detroit Free Press. she expressed a desire to meet her, and she graciously waived the fixed custom among women of note that the one of least official prominence shall take the initiative, and forthwith sought an introduction. Mr. Bryan happened to arrefugely and promises to be enriched by the appearance of a new newspaper in the field. The Washington Herald, which was issued to be the condition of the United States and Colombia. troduction. Mr. Bryan happened to arrive upon the scene immediately after the presentation was made by the newspaper man, and he was introduced to both of the famous women. Whether Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Davis ever again met is not known.

The Washington Herald, which was introduced to arrive upon the scene immediately after the for the first time at the National Capital on Monday. Our new contemporary has a full complement of the necessary virginary naturally provoking a feeling of irritation on the part of Colombians. But in time this will be allayed, especially if the United States government was introduced by the secession of the Isthmus of Panama, its separation from the mother of the famous women. Whether Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Davis ever again met Mr. Bryan happened to ar-

From the would be a singular circumstance, and one not very flattering to our national one to very one flower from the French with considerable flower flattering to our national one to very decision that the flat slaw of the possibility of the transported to the flat slaw of the fl be dug, and how quickly. And now we are going to let the foreigner have are going to let the foreigner have are going to let the foreigner have a chance at the job, We fervently hope he'll fall to get it. It would be too heavy a blow at our manifold bigness to find there wasn't talent enough in this world-power of ours to dist or panama.

A woman has been fined for stealing an umbrella out in Missourt. There are are going to let the foreigner have a chance at the job, We fervently hope he'll fall to get it. It would be too heavy a blow at our manifold bigness to find there wasn't talent enough in this world-power of ours to dist ground for the fact that Cuba is family and the declaring to previous experience and with the equipment ready made for work of this class, this battle ship would have been it is likely, as it is likely, as it is likely, as it is, that the center of every the connecticut will easily and the declaring to himself that he must either be declared in the countriest of the hour is the operation of mexapapers of the hour is the countriest, and is hold on the surface of the fact that Cuba is far a small-sized van, and the distribution of the fact that the must either be declaring to himself that he must either be declaring or surely agone store the fine distinguished stateman about in slence for an hour or more, the while he liess is the smille strain, of Virginia, the other day and fol. Is well read that the centered of the distinguished stateman about in slence for an hour or more, the while he can the distinguished stateman about in slence for an hour or more, the while he can the fine of the single strain the elicitation of the interest and confidence. Decent papers, the field with them as deal to declaring the proposed wide open; fade less is the smilled state of the did the late at night his presence there would ods, create g sensation, for old employes of

A Society of Hoosiers. The Oldest Inhabitants' Association of Indiana, composed of some of the distinguished sons of the Hoosier State who "Nix," declared Japan. "There ain't go- have lived longest in Washington, meets modern journal. The Herald is indedaily in the office of a friend in the Wyatt Building. The hour of meeting is never later than H a. m., and the sessions usualy last until about 2 p. m. The membership is small but select, and the prin- From the Springfield Republican. ship is Smart but select, and the williams, cipal officers are Gen. George B. Williams, president, and Col. Richard J. Bright, vice posed of merely on a platform of respective posed of merely on a platform of respective president, and Col. Richard J. Bright, vice posed of merely on a platform of respective president, and Col. Richard J. Bright, vice posed of merely on a platform of respective president president and Col. Richard J. Bright, vice posed of merely on a platform of respective president pre president, Col. Bright, as is well known, tability and decency in public office; but while in the House commanded the uniiams has been a Republican ever since that party was formed. What he was before does not concern the society. The president and vice president are about the same age, which, though covering a span of many years, does not represent in their case anything beyond the purple borderland of buoyant youth. When they fall to talking about Indiana affairs of a half century ago, the young of years, who are permitted to witness but not to participate in the formal proceedings of the society, surreptitiously take notes, which at the first opportunity they compare with the written record of Hoosier civilization. At the present writing every fact of hisger of a deluge.

Trouble. As the campaign is now shaping added Sixth avenue or other quarters where the common people were in evidence. It seemed to me that men who are best acquainted with New York politics, are wise in thinking that the odds of 2 to torical interest recounted by the president and vice president of the society has been found to be letter perfect, and the in-credulous youngsters who thus are striv-A recent hallstorm in Venice is credited Hearst may be elected by a huge mamistake have ingioriously falled. Events with results for which dwellers in conjurity, and, on the other hand, it may turn of startling and thrilling interest that gested portions of great cities in some out that he will be overwhelming beaten. have net found their way as yet into the voluminous literature of Indiana are redownpour was almost unprecedented in lated almost at every session by the presi-volume and the hallstones are started to up in 1908 as a very active Presidential dent and vice president, and they are so have been as large as pigeon eggs. quantity." seldom in disagreement that the favored Now, in few cities does the number of few who attend the daily meetings of the homeless cats amount to such a veritable ociety are beginning to believe that noth- plague as it does in the city of the Doges, of Congress from Indiana, and in the days ing that has happened in Hoosierdom, and the large hallstones, pouring down of Democratic ascendancy three times from the first settlement of whites down on the roofs like bullets, are stated to secretary of State, is in Washington, to this glorious era of Indiana history, have slain such numbers of the feline Capt. Myers has been one of the Demo-

Spooner as Adviser.

Hon. John C. Spooner's reluctance to Letting Him Known discuss the delicate situation in Cuba for From the Milwaukee Sentinel. publication, although it is known that he was called to the White House the other day by the President for consultation on this subject, is quite probably due to the fact that he is recognized in the Senate as one of the joint authors of the Plati amendment, under the authority of which the administration has sent a military expedition to Cuba to straighten out the Greatly relieved, the patient went out tangle there. Senator Spooner is not now, in the back yard and sawed wood. expedition to Cuba to straighten out the nor has he ever been, a member of the Committee on Relations with Cuba, but he was the chief lieutenant of the late Senator Platt, of Connecticut, all through the long campaign which resulted in the enactment o, the far-reaching statute which bears the name of the dead statesman. Indeed, the claim is made that the Wisconsin Senator did the actual writing of the Platt amendment, though he has never claimed any credit, even for joint authorship. He and Mr. Platt were very close friends, and each respected the other as a lawyer of the very highest ability. Mr. Spooner never had a more ettentive listener while speaking was the Connecticut statesman, who him self spoke rarely in the Senate. If ther To level up the birth rate, to Pain William Chandler—all by talking. is a long discussion of the Cuban question in the Senate this winter, Mr. Spooner may be expected to be its leader

Something He Can Read. From the Indianapolis News.

GREETINGS TO THE HERALD. VIEWS OF VISITING

The Washington Herald, the new 1-cent norning paper, edited by Scott C. Bone, It is a singular fact that seems to be formerly of Indianapolis, made its first ham is Senor Enrique Cortes, who has veteran newspaper man. The Herald ment shows that sincere sympathy and seems complete and worthy in all depart-Maj. Burke, Impressario.

Maj. John M. Burke, Col. Buffalo Bill's ent, progressive future, and as a young to its smaller neighbors. Ezra Timms has had to tie cold towels impressario, is in Washington the guest contemporary of promise, we bid it wel-

French, Belgian, and German contractors. be? And how is the serious situation to the fair to "keep their eyes on their constitutes the efficacy of a window be remedied? These are questions which pockets." It is a hard matter to do that screen.

The Richmond Journal advises visitors holes or the closeness of the wires that of England and the Continent with the continent with the Suffalo Bill Show, and at the White pockets." It is a hard matter to do that screen. House yesterday he entertained his old ing journal published at the nation's tive leaders as President Diaz, of Mex-

The Democratic candidate for goverto fansame.

The Democratic candidate for goverto fansame delares that he wants to smile serene and sweet.

The Democratic candidate for goverto fansame delares that he wants to
smile serene and sweet.

The Democratic candidate for goverto fansas declares that he wants to
smile serene and sweet.

Moody's face displays a crevice that a shippo couldn't beat.

An important feature of the system of the Louisiana, and a part of this cost
the Louisiana, and a part of this cost
the Louisiana, and a part of this cost the system of this class, this battle ship would have
smile serene and sweet.

Moody's face displays a crevice that a speared on Monday last. Mr. Scott
the eye, timbre of voice, mannerisms of
the eye, timbre of voice, mannerisms of the peared on Monday last. Mr. Scott Speach and walk and pose, there can be
this class, this battle ship would have
smile serene and sweet.

Moody's face displays a crevice that a speared on Monday last. Mr. Scott Speach and walk and pose, there can be
this class, this battle ship would have
smile serene and sweet.

Moody's face displays a crevice that a speared on Monday last. Mr. Scott Speach and walk and pose, there can be
this class, this battle ship would have
smile serene and sweet.

Moody's face displays a speared on Monday last. Mr. Scott
speared on Monday last. hippo couldn't beat.

Bonaparte has grinned and chortled 'till speech and walk and pose, there can be C. Bone, an experienced newspaper man, of financial institutions that were very co-education at the University of Chicago has been eliminated by the separation of the sexes. Girl students will short be succeeded and walk and part the Endershall, and a part the Endershall, and a part the Endershall, and a part the Succeeded and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall, and a part the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Endershall and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and walk and pose, there can be the Subscent and learn something of journalism. If the support another daily Virginian should by chance find himself paper—especially one that will not try wandering through the corridors of the Globe-Democrat building in St. Louis defeat of candidates by underhand meth-

"There comes Gotrox in his new auto." that establishment who knew McCullagh From the Lexington (Va.) Gazette, "I don't think he has learned very much would verily believe that nature's laws The Washington Herald is a new daily bout steering it."

had been reversed and the stern discipaper of sixteen pages, whose initial plinarian had been brought back to life.

number was issued Monday morning. number was issued Monday morning. Mr. Scott C. Bone, long the managing editor of the Washington Post, is editor, Hearst's Real Creator.

this will not dispose of the public sense of wrong and injustice which is the real of wrong and injustice which is the real creater of the Hearsts and which may New York City," remarked Judge Brawraise up more obnoxious or dangerous leaders after him. It may not be necessary for the election of Mr. Hughes to put forward in his behalf a positive programmae of reform against monopoly aggression, but his success would undoubtedly be more certain in that event; and in any case there would be the taking of steps to meet a fundamental trouble. As the campaign is now shaping itself, the election of Hughes may mean no more than a temporary stopraise up more obnoxious or dangerous ley, "and was an interested observer of the ger of a deluge.

Slaughter of the Cat. greatly reduced ere election day. From the London Globe.

have been killed.

Letting Him Know the Worst. "Doctor, you may as well be frank with me. Tell me the worst," sald the patient nervously.

loctor, calmly, but firmly. "Nothing?" the matter with you.

Crushing It to Earth.

The Valedictorian (in June)-And now. dear classmates, as we go out into the world, let this day's motto be ever before us: "Truth is Our Guide."

The Boss (in October)-Willie, tell that The ex-Valedictorian-Yessir.

TALE OF A STAMP.

I'm a stamp, a postage stamp, A two-center, Don't want to brag, .... I was never licked except once; by a gentleman, too; he put me on a Good thing—it was an envelope— Perfumed, pink, square; I've been stuck on That envelope ever since. He dropped us, the envelope and me, Through a slot in a dark box. Through a slot in a data box, but we were rescued by a mail clerk, More's the pity. He hit me an Awful smash with a hammer; It left my face black and blue. Then I went on a long journey for Two days, and when we arrived the days, are when we arrived

MEN OF AFFAIRS.

A very interesting visitor at the Shore-

My private affairs will scarcely admit of my being here for a very extended period,

"Colombia is making splendid progress under the strong administration of President Reyes, whose capacity as a states-man and developer of civilization puts him in the rank of such great const tained heavy financial advantage through the failure of many seafaring men to ever claim funds and valuables that they had deposited. Year after year went by and the moneys kept increasing in amount, but no claimant ever came for ward, and in many cases so long a time had elapsed since the date of deposit that was morally certain no one would ever come forward to ask payment. Thus the company would sooner or later become invested with ownership of these uncalled-for balances, since it was not the policy of any financial institution to ad-

There is no more highly respected or widely liked jurist in the country than Judge William H. Brawley, of Charleston, S. C., who is at the Arlington. Before are wise in thinking that the odds of 2 to 1 now quoted in Hughes' favor will be

Capt. William R. Myers, former member

"I think it quite probable that Mr.

has escaped the retentive memory of either Gen. Williams or Coi. Bright, tional Capital.

Let the Law Be Promptly Enforced, From the New Orleans Picayune,

The experience with the criminal courts generally is that there is no such thing "I can do nothing for you," said the as swift, certain and severe punishment for any crime. No fault can be imputed "Nothing?" to the judicial and executive officers of the law in such cases, but all depends on the methods and processes by which the business of the courts is conducted. in a single case in this State, through the special exertions of the governor, an atroclous criminal was brought to immediate trial, convicted and executed. If that were the rule, instead of a care ex-ception, the general situation would be ### vastly different from what it is, Daisies Followed War,

From the Philadelphia Bulletin.

"There were no daisles in the South," said a Southerner, "till after the civil war. Now we have daisles in prefusion, and they are especially abundant in the regions visited by the Northern armies. Sherman's march to the sea can be traced in the summer by a broad white trail of daisles. How was the daisy seed brought South? Undoubtedly it came in the hay that was shipped from the North for the horses' fodder

Neither Circle or Square.

From the Milwaukee Scatinel. "Do you move in the same circle with

"I should say not," replied the sweet thing with a dimple. "We wouldn't even live in the same square with her."